

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Vard Johnson, please.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: No, not on this.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Higgins, on the Landis amendment.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Mr. President, I would move to adjourn until tomorrow morning at 9:00 a.m.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Well, wait a minute, wait a minute. I don't think we want to...

SENATOR HIGGINS: Well, I'm willing to wait until they vote on his amendment.

SPEAKER NICHOL: All right.

SENATOR HIGGINS: I don't mean to stop that.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Please allow us to introduce bills and so forth and it may take a little while and if you don't mind, we can leave the bill if that's what you're driving for, but let's take the amendment and then if you wish...

SENATOR HIGGINS: I don't mind voting on Senator Landis's amendment. I just thought it's getting close to noon, we'd take it up, I assume, after lunch, wouldn't we? In other words, I don't want to not be present for a vote and be accused of being out campaigning.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Well, we won't accuse you of that. Senator Landis, would it be agreeable with you if we leave the bill at the moment?

SENATOR LANDIS: If we could simply proceed to a vote on the amendment, that would be an appropriate time to leave the bill because I think Senator Johnson wants to rehash another issue that we spiked on General File.

SPEAKER NICHOL: We'll do it this way then. We'll allow you to close on the amendment that we're on, Senator Landis, and we'll take a vote on that. We'll leave the bill, but we still must stay in session to introduce bills and so forth and I do not want to shut people off from introducing bills. So with that, Senator Landis, would you like to close on your motion?
